

May 16, 2008

Lincoln Center Theater's production of Rodgers & Hammerstein's SOUTH PACIFIC wins
Distinguished Revival of a Musical!
Director Bartlett Sher honored.

Founded in 1916, the Drama League is an association of theatre professionals and patrons dedicated to "encouraging the finest in professional theatre and has since then developed into the theatre's premiere service organization." The Drama League presents awards in four categories: Distinguished Production of a Musical, Play, Revival of a Musical and Revival of a Play.

SOUTH PACIFIC received the following awards:

Distinguished Revival of a Musical

Bartlett Sher (LCT's The Light in the Piazza, Awake and Sing!, Rodgers & Hammerstein's South Pacific) received the Julia Hansen Award for Excellence in Directing.