

THE VIVIAN BEAUMONT SOCIETY

As a member of our audience, perhaps you've had moments at Lincoln Center Theater that have been especially memorable. Maybe you've been swept away by the overture to Rodgers & Hammerstein's South Pacific, or captivated by the revolutionary thinkers in The Coast of Utopia. Or you may have had your heart broken by the travails of War Horse's Joey, danced vicariously with Contact's Girl in the Yellow Dress, or cheered works by gifted playwrights such as Jon Robin Baitz, Sarah Ruhl and Wendy Wasserstein.

If you've appreciated the past productions that have graced our stages, we hope you will consider joining the Vivian Beaumont Society to help safeguard the future of Lincoln Center Theater for the benefit of artists and audiences to come.

LINCOLN

pays tribute to those far-sighted supporters of Lincoln Center Theater (LCT) who have helped preserve the Theater's artistic legacy for the enrichment of generations to follow with a designation in their wills or other planned gifts. LCT's Board of Directors has established the Vivian Beaumont Society to honor and acknowledge these dedicated friends.

The VIVIAN BEAUMONT SOCIETY is named for Vivian Beaumont Allen, a generous benefactor devoted to the performing arts, who made an early founding gift to provide a lasting home for theater on the Lincoln Center campus. The Vivian Beaumont Society recognizes other individuals who share this vision for an enduring, lively theater at Lincoln Center. In addition to the Vivian Beaumont Theater, the LCT complex houses the intimate Mitzi E. Newhouse Theater on the building's lower level and the Claire Tow Theater for our new LCT3 program on the roof.

Those who wish to join the VIVIAN BEAUMONT SOCIETY can simply inform LCT in writing of their legacy gifts. Bequests and other vehicles such as charitable remainder or lead trusts and life insurance or retirement plan designations perpetuate LCT's commitment to artistic excellence and can provide significant benefits to donors and their heirs. Vivian Beaumont Society gifts are an important source for building the Theater's endowment and providing crucial operating funds toward our programs, including productions at the Beaumont, the Newhouse, the Tow and on Broadway, our Open Stages education program for NYC public school children, the Playwrights Program of readings and workshops, the Directors Lab for emerging theater artists, and LCT3, a program that fosters opportunities for new artists and promotes the growth of new audiences. Donors may designate gifts either for a specific program at LCT or for the Theater's general operations, both gratefully welcomed by the Board and staff of LCT.

VIVIAN BEAUMONT SOCIETY members are given opportunities to become more involved with the Theater, including special behind-the-scenes events and gatherings, and will be acknowledged with special appreciation in every LCT performance program during the season (unless anonymity is requested). For more information, please fill out and return the form attached or contact Rachel Norton at Norton@lct.org or (212) 501-3278.

If you are interested in joining the VIVIAN BEAUMONT SOCIETY, we encourage you to meet with your family members and professional advisors to determine which charitable plan best suits your wishes and is the most tax-efficient, as well as to contact an LCT representative. Once you have decided on a plan, please be sure to let us know so we may extend a warm welcome to you as a member of the Vivian Beaumont Society.

Please note that Lincoln Center Theater's legal name is The Vivian Beaumont Theater, Inc. (d/b/a Lincoln Center Theater).
