Please note that the IRS prohibits the use of Donor-Advised Funds where more than an incidental benefit is received by the donor in return (e.g. event table/tickets). This prohibition applies regardless of whether the donor pays separately for the benefits received (i.e. the non-deductible amount). All table/ticket purchases, therefore, must be funded personally outside of a Donor-Advised Fund. For further guidance, please consult with your Donor-Advised fund administrator.
