

LINCOLN
CENTER
THEATER

INVITES YOU TO BE A
PATRON

Dear Friends,

In these uncertain times, the support of our Patrons is more important than ever. We hope you join us at LCT in believing in the power and the joy of live theater. Our commitment to our loyal audiences is unwavering and we look forward to opening our doors to you as soon as we possibly can.

With your help, we will keep our Theater strong. We promise to continue our varied programs of the old and the new, and will strive to present them at the highest possible level, as we have for more than 35 years. We are proud of our LCT artists and will work with them to bring you shows of notable distinction that reflect our many cultures and communities. LCT will also continue to serve thousands of New York's public school students this year, engaging them with theater through online activities designed by our education staff.

In appreciation for your friendship, as soon as we are able, we will offer a host of Patron benefits including personalized ticketing, pre-show dinners and behind the scenes events. In the meantime, we will whet your appetite for theater with streaming opportunities and other digital content and we will share exciting production updates as our plans progress.

Thanks so much for thinking of LCT at this time of unprecedented challenges. We look forward to welcoming you to the Theater with open hearts. And until then, please take good care of yourselves!

With best wishes,

André Bishop

In appreciation for your support, LCT is pleased to offer Patrons a package of exclusive benefits, including personalized ticketing, special events and behind-the-scenes opportunities. Patron benefits at levels of support ranging from $2,500 to $25,000 are outlined in the attached benefits grid.

Dear Friends,

Now more than ever, Patrons are an essential part of the Lincoln Center Theater family. Your Patron support, especially in these unsettling times, helps to keep LCT moving forward, planning works of theater that are destined to inspire, provoke and entertain. Your kind assistance with our plays and with our programs for public school students and rising theater artists is deeply valued. As Patron Committee Co-Chairwomen, we look forward to welcoming you to the Theater or to a Patron event as soon as it is possible to open our doors. In the meantime, we would be exceptionally grateful for your friendship and support of LCT.

With warmth and appreciation,

Daryl Roth Ninah Lynne Ide Dangoor

Based on current information regarding COVID-19 and concern for the well-being and safety of our audiences and artists, LCT plans to offer Patron benefits such as tickets to our shows and invitations to special Patron events as soon as the Theater is able to reopen to the public (currently planned for Spring 2021). Patron benefits listed above are subject to change depending upon when the Theater can be reopened and when related events can be held.

* Choice of dates is subject to availability. Seating location priority is commensurate with Patron level.

 You can also make a fully tax-deductible contribution by declining benefits. For information, please call the Patron Office at 212 501 3252 or email Sheila Rao at rao@lct.org, Caitlin Christensen at christensen@lct.org or Rachel Norton at norton@lct.org. Please note that tax-deductible amounts are subject to change depending upon when the Theater is able to reopen for performances and events and when related Patron benefits can be offered.
