Two-time Tony and Olivier Award winner Patti LuPone returns to the Beaumont stage to perform an intimate evening of songs, with the titles randomly chosen from a hat.

Accompanied on piano by musical director Joseph Thalken, the concert will include performances of her signature songs as well as a few surprises along the way!

Festive dress!

Proceeds from this event will support Lincoln Center Theater's productions and education programs.

To purchase Benefit tables or tickets, please contact Karin Schall (schall@lct.org) or Dana Jones (jones@lct.org).

Please note that the most up-to-date COVID protocols will be observed. We will keep you updated as protocols become clear.
