I invite you to join us at Lincoln Center Theater for a full year of exciting new productions. We would be honored and grateful for your Patron support, whether you are signing up as a Patron for the first time or renewing your Patron gift.

Without the help of our Patrons, who have encouraged and sustained us immeasurably, our 35-year history of productions would simply not have been possible. Your Patron gift helps bring so many of our endeavors to fruition—our plays, of course; our education program for New York's public school children, our magazine that you see in the lobbies, our Director's Lab, our Platform Series, and our Readings and Workshops program. These are activities that nourish theater artists and foster new generations of theatergoers.

We hope that your visits to LCT have been enjoyable, intriguing, and maybe even (dare I say it!) inspiring, and that your encounters with our plays and our artists might move you to lend your support. In appreciation for your friendship, we offer a host of Patron benefits including personalized ticket reservations, preferred seating, convenient pre-show dinners, often with guest speakers, and behind-the-scenes events.

We look forward to seeing you soon and often during the season ahead.

Thank you so much.

PRODUCING ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

DEAR FRIENDS,

On behalf of the Patron Committee and everyone at Lincoln Center Theater, we look forward to welcoming you to the Theater this year. We hope you'll consider joining or renewing as a Patron, and being with us at LCT Patron events and performances in the months ahead. Patrons provide essential help to our Theater, with the productions on our stages, and behind the scenes with programs for public school students and rising theater artists. We would be truly grateful for your friendship, involvement and support.

With warmth and appreciation,

Daryl Roth
